

May the great spiritual beings of the will to good allow their creative light to flow through Shambala into the earthly universe, so that it may take effect in the deeds of the advanced members of humanity.

May the will to good fill and enlighten the souls of human beings, so that their actions may oppose the reawakened darkness!

May the truth of the transmigration of souls find its place in human thinking and may the tone of human love resound in their souls.

May cleansing winds force open the way to the future!
